

HELP FOR WORKERS

Need help with Unemployment Insurance or Pandemic Unemployment Assistance? We can help!

NLSLA is helping fully or partially unemployed workers get unemployment benefits.

We can help with:

- Regular Unemployment Insurance Benefits (UIB)
- Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA)
- ✔ Information and advice | ✔ Applications | ✔ Appealing denials from EDD

About Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA)

PUA is a new benefit for workers who are not usually eligible for regular UIB.

These workers include:

- Independent contractors, gig workers or freelancers
- Business owners and self-employed workers
- Workers without enough work history to qualify for regular UIB
- Workers who had a job offer but could not start because of COVID-19

PUA provides up to 39 weeks of benefits at a minimum of $167 per week from February 2, 2020 to December 26, 2020 plus $600 per week from March 29, 2020 to July 25, 2020.

Call NLSLA for help: 1 (800) 433-6251 | Leave a message and someone will call you back.

Please have the following information ready during your call with NLSLA:

1. Your Social Security Number
2. If you filed for UIB in the last 2 years, the EDD Account Number and Claim dates
3. Your Driver License or State Identification Card Number
4. Name, addresses, and phone number of all employers for the past 18 months
5. The approximate amount of wages paid
6. The first and last day of employment