About NLSLA:

Neighborhood Legal Services of Los Angeles County (NLSLA) is a steadfast advocate for individuals, families, and communities throughout Los Angeles County. Through a combination of direct representation, impact litigation, policy advocacy, and community education, NLSLA works to reduce the effects of poverty in Los Angeles' low-income communities, support the development of opportunities for individuals and families to move themselves out of poverty, and protect and enforce the legal rights of poor people by ensuring access to our health and justice systems.

Founded in 1965 as part of our nation's War on Poverty, NLSLA is now one of the largest and most comprehensive public interest law firms in California, with a staff of 160+, including 75+ attorneys. NLSLA staff are based in four program offices (Glendale, Pacoima, El Monte and Boyle Heights), courthouses and healthcare centers throughout Los Angeles County. The program's operating budget for 2022 is projected to surpass $23 million.

Each year NLSLA provides free legal assistance to more than 100,000 individuals through innovative projects that expand access to justice. NLSLA attorneys specialize in areas of the law that disproportionately impact low-income people, including affordable housing and eviction defense, access to public benefits, support for domestic violence victims, access to healthcare, worker and consumer rights, services for justice involved adults and youth, education rights, and employment and training.
