

Neighborhood Legal Services
of Los Angeles County

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT:
Supervising Attorney, Family Law and Immigration Team
June 2022

Join the Neighborhood Legal Services of Los Angeles County (NLSLA) and become part of an energetic team of advocates that provide a wide-range of legal services aimed to address issues that disproportionately impact the poor. These services include litigation, providing training and technical assistance, and community education.

NLSLA is seeking a Supervising Attorney to lead its Family Law and Immigration Team, comprised of lawyers, paralegals and a legal secretary. The ideal candidate must have a demonstrated passion and commitment to working with survivors of domestic violence or other similar client populations with a sensitivity to those in crisis. The Supervising Attorney will lead, mentor and support the team in its advocacy, including direct services, systemic advocacy, and community education.

Position: Supervising Attorney, Family Law and Immigration Team

Availability: Availability is Immediate.

Salary: Salary starting at $95,000+ - commensurate with experience. Excellent benefits which include: choice of medical, dental, vision; life and disability insurance plans; 125 plan; 403(b) with employer contribution, loan reimbursement, bilingual pay supplement, sick and vacation pay, and 14 employer-paid holidays.

Duties and Responsibilities: Supervising Attorney will function as a member of NLSLA's Leadership Team and contribute to the coordination of services in carrying out the mission of the organization. The Supervising Attorney oversees all aspects of the Family Law and Immigration Team, including professional development of the team members, managing grants and projects, coordinating program-wide advocacy efforts, partnering with various stakeholders and more. Frequent travel throughout Los Angeles County is required.

Qualifications:

- Attorney licensed to practice law in California with a minimum of five years' experience in either immigration law or family law
- Experience handling administrative hearings, court hearings and trials
- Experience or demonstrated ability to supervise and mentor a team of attorneys and paralegals
- Demonstrated passion and commitment to public interest law and prior experience serving low-income individuals
- Experience working with individuals in crisis and/or survivors of domestic violence.
- Demonstrated ability to create and maintain community partnerships
- Research and analytical skills; effective communicator
- Organizational skills and ability to oversee multiple projects

About NLSLA:

Founded in 1965 as part of our nation's War on Poverty, Neighborhood Legal Services of Los Angeles County (NLSLA) is now one of the largest and most prominent public interest law firms in California. NLSLA provides free assistance to more than 115,000 low-income residents of Los Angeles County each year. The NLSLA staff of 180, including 80 attorneys, specialize in areas of the law that disproportionately impact low-income people, including affordable housing and eviction defense, access to public benefits, support for domestic violence victims, access to healthcare, worker and consumer rights, services for justice-involved adults and youth, education rights, clean slate initiatives, and employment and training.

Through a combination of individual representation, high impact litigation, and public policy advocacy, NLSLA's advocacy combats the immediate and long-persisting effects of poverty and expands access to health, opportunity and justice. NLSLA serves all of Los Angeles County with a special emphasis on the poverty communities of the San Fernando, San Gabriel, Pomona and Antelope Valleys, as well as the central county cities of Glendale, Burbank and Pasadena. In addition, NLSLA advocates are co-located in courthouses in Van Nuys, Lancaster, Chatsworth, Pomona, Pasadena, and Downtown LA; Hospitals and health centers in Sylmar, Van Nuys, North Hollywood and El Monte; and with social services providers in the Antelope Valley.
