Re: Annual Report: December 2022 Review of Priorities

Pursuant to 45 CFR §1620.7(c), the NLSLA Board of Directors reports:

1. This annual report, which summarizes the December 2022 review of priorities, will be made available to the public on or before December 23, 2022.
2. The NLSLA Board of Directors held the most recent appraisal at the NLSLA Board meeting on December 15, 2022.
3. The Board established the final meeting of the NLSLA Board of Directors for each calendar year for future appraisals of needs and evaluations of priorities.
4. NLSLA proposes to conduct a legal needs study in 2023. The following mechanisms may be utilized to ensure effective client participation in priority-setting: 1) focus groups with low-income members of the following groups: individuals of color; LGBTQ; limited-English proficient individuals; seniors and the individuals with disabilities; 2) client and litigant surveys regarding priorities and recommended changes; 3) convening of non-profits and offices of elected officials; and 4) community convening.
5. No changes were made to the program's five priorities: Housing, Health, Economic Security, Access to Justice and Race Equity.
6. On December 15, 2022, the NLSLA Board of Directors reviewed and approved the resource allocation for 2023.
