

Neighborhood Legal Services
of Los Angeles County

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT: Staff Attorney- Medical Legal Community Partnerships (MLCP)

Join the Neighborhood Legal Services of Los Angeles County (NLSLA) and become part of an energetic team of advocates that provide a wide range of legal services aimed at addressing issues that disproportionately impact low-income communities. These services include litigation, providing training and technical assistance, and community education.

NLSLA is the lead legal partner in the MLCP-LA project, a partnership between the LA County Department of Health Services (DHS) and key Los Angeles area legal services providers. NLSLA is also the primary legal organization serving patients in the LA County Department of Mental Health's Innovations project in Boyle Heights.

NLSLA is seeking a staff attorney to join its growing and innovative MLCP team. This new team member will be stationed at NLSLA's The Wellness Center location and charged with the delivery and coordination of legal services to patients within the LA County DMH Innovations Boyle Heights project ("Innovations"). Innovations aims to demonstrate how the close partnership between healthcare, supportive services, and legal services providers can improve health outcomes for patients facing poverty, illness, substance use disorders, and other systemic barriers impacting the social determinants of health.

Regular travel between NLSLA program offices and MLCP sites will be required, consistent with NLSLA's COVID safety protocols.

Excellent writing, research, organizational skills, and the ability to communicate and collaborate effectively with clients, healthcare providers, community organizations, attorneys, the judiciary, and the public are essential. Spanish bilingual skills strongly preferred. California Bar membership is preferred.

COVID-19 vaccination is required, which is a condition of employment. Reasonable accommodations will be considered.

About NLSLA:

Founded in 1965 as part of our nation's War on Poverty, Neighborhood Legal Services of Los Angeles County (NLSLA) is now one of the largest and most prominent public interest law firms in California. NLSLA provides free assistance to more than 115,000 low-income residents of Los Angeles County each year. The NLSLA staff of 190, including 80 attorneys, specialize in areas of the law that disproportionately impact low-income people, including affordable housing and eviction defense, access to public benefits, support for domestic violence victims, access to healthcare, worker and consumer rights, services for justice-involved adults and youth, education rights, clean slate initiatives, and employment and training.

Through a combination of individual representation, high impact litigation, and public policy advocacy, NLSLA's advocacy combats the immediate and long-lasting effects of poverty and expands access to health, opportunity, and justice. NLSLA serves all of Los Angeles County with a special emphasis on the poverty communities of the San Fernando, San Gabriel, Pomona, and Antelope Valleys, as well as the central county cities of Glendale, Burbank, and Pasadena. In addition, NLSLA advocates are co-located in courthouses in Van Nuys, Lancaster, Chatsworth, Pomona, Pasadena, and Downtown LA; Hospitals and health centers in Sylmar, Van Nuys, North Hollywood, and El Monte; and with social services providers in the Antelope Valley.
