

Director of Housing & Homelessness Prevention

Change Lives and Transform Communities – Come Lead Our Housing Department!

Neighborhood Legal Services of Los Angeles County (NLSLA) provides free assistance to over 160,000 individuals and families each year through innovative projects that expand access to justice. We see the law as a powerful tool for social change and we're looking for passionate individuals to help us fight for justice.

We value diverse perspectives and experiences, and we believe that a strong community is built through inclusivity. NLSLA is proud to foster an environment that welcomes individuals from all backgrounds and abilities, and we encourage all qualified candidates to apply.

About the Role

The Director of Housing and Homelessness Prevention is responsible for helping create and execute NLSLA's vision for how to secure, preserve, and obtain affordable housing for vulnerable Angelenos. This leader oversees the supervising attorneys of the Stay Housed LA, Lawyers Preventing and Ending Homelessness Project (PEHP), and Shriver Housing Project-LA teams. The Director will represent NLSLA at Stay Housed leadership meetings collaborate with stakeholders (community partners, pro bono providers, governmental agencies, and other legal service providers), monitor housing grant compliance and deliverables, and provide opportunities to housing advocates for professional development.

The Director is responsible for monitoring issues affecting low-income individuals and families with an eye toward identifying opportunities for systemic advocacy, including impact litigation and policy advocacy, and participates in those efforts as appropriate.

The Director of Housing & Homelessness Prevention is a member of the Senior Management Team and reports to the Legal Director. This position is full-time and exempt.

What You'll Do

- Oversee housing advocacy, leading supervisors and staff attorneys to pursue all aspects of housing litigation, administrative hearing representation, and other administrative advocacy.
- Maintain expertise on a range of housing issues affecting low-income individuals.

- Oversee the supervisors of the Stay Housed LA, PEHP, and Shriver Housing Project-LA teams, providing support, mentorship and guidance.
- Provide formal trainings on housing law to NLSLA advocates and pro bono partners.
- Support NLSLA housing attorneys as needed (for example, consulting on cases, accompanying less-experienced attorneys to court, and serving as a second chair at trial).
- Engage in outreach and education to tenant and community groups.
- Manage NLSLA's Stay Housed contract.
- Participate as a member of NLSLA's Senior Team to help guide and implement the program's vision and priorities.

What You'll Need

- A JD from an accredited law school and an active California State Bar license.
- Minimum of seven (7) years of prior experience working on housing issues, and particularly those that impact low-income tenants and unhoused individuals.
- Minimum of five (5) years of supervisory and/or leadership experience.
- Effective oral and written communication skills.
- Passion for NLSLA's mission and a demonstrated commitment to advocating for the legal rights of low-income individuals.
- Patience and sensitivity for people who have experienced trauma or are in crisis situations.
- Knowledge of MS Office, Windows, business communication platforms, and web-based case management platforms.

Bonus Points If You

- Have previous experience working in a legal aid or public interest law organization.
- Have experience in a senior leadership role, demonstrating the ability to engage in a high-level strategic planning and organizational decision-making.
- Have experience as a senior attorney, managing complex legal matters and mentoring junior attorneys.
- Are bilingual in Spanish, due to the high number of Spanish-speaking residents in the community, or in any of the other Los Angeles threshold languages, which is highly valued in our community outreach efforts.
- Have experience conducting jury trials.
- Have worked with the City of Los Angeles, or the County of Los Angeles, or the Los Angeles Superior Court.

Equal Employment Opportunity Policy

NLSLA is committed to provide a work environment that respects the dignity and worth of each individual and is free from all forms of employment discrimination based on each and every characteristic protected under the law and beyond.

Decisions related to hiring, compensating, training, evaluating performance, promoting, or terminating are made fairly, and are based on job-related qualities and abilities. We provide equal employment opportunities to all qualified candidates and employees. We examine our unconscious biases and take responsibility for always striving to create an inclusive environment that makes every employee and candidate feel welcome.

We further expect every member of the NLSLA community to do their part to cultivate and maintain an environment where everyone has the opportunity to feel included and is afforded the respect and dignity they deserve.

We will consider for employment all qualified applicants, including those with criminal histories, in a manner consistent with applicable state and local laws, including the City of Los Angeles' Fair Chance Initiative for Hiring Ordinance. Please note that, in limited circumstances, certain convictions may be considered incompatible with the responsibilities of specific roles, particularly where the safety and well-being of vulnerable client populations are a concern.

NLSLA's Commitments

We are committed to fostering a culture of inclusion and belonging within our organization and the communities we serve. We achieve this through:

- Continuous Learning: Cultivating cultural competency and humility among staff through ongoing training, open dialogue, and self-reflection.
- Equitable Practices: Regularly reviewing and revising policies, procedures, and decision-making processes to ensure fairness and access for all.
- Strategic Resource Allocation: Directing resources towards initiatives that empower communities.
- Meaningful Community Engagement: Partnering with the communities we serve to co-create solutions and foster trust.
- A Respectful Workplace: Providing a work environment free from discrimination and where every individual is valued, heard, and respected for their unique contributions.
